Guardians of the galaxy 2

The countdown to Guardians of the Galaxy, Vol. 2 officially opens, and with May 5 just a couple of weeks away, new details about the long-awaited sequel are beginning to emerge. Apart from baby groots full-time inclusion, this news may be my favorite. According to Entertainment Weekly, This Is Us star Chris Sullivan is in GOTG, Vol. 2, but it will be virtually unrecognizable to Toby fans, thanks to seriously impressive makeup. I think it's safe to say Sullivan is having a bit of a moment. In 2016, he got a memorable guest spot on Stranger Things before starring as the affectionate Toby on This Is Us. Toby and Kate's relationship was a highlight of the first season, making Sullivan one of tv's most recent break-up stars. Now the actor will be in one of the most anticipated films of the summer, and gets to play a foreigner. Trust me, if you want to see Sullivan, you'll need details about his character because, as he revealed in his interview with EW, it took two to three hours in the makeup chair every day to create the look of the Space Pirate Taserface. Yes, Taserface. The character is working with Yondu's crew, and is the head of the Ravagers. From his description, it's safe to say, Taserface isn't the kind of guy you'd want to hang out with for a long time. He has described it as tall and a bit of a bully - and in an interview with ComicBook.com, director James Gunn explained: I think in this film, we have the Ravagers' head as a real deaman. A very powerful guy. I decided he called himself and called himself Taserface. Check out Sullivan in full makeup. Awesome, right? In comics, Taserface is a villain who causes the Guardians a lot of problems. He finally changes his strange nickname, and is known as Overkill, which is an equally hilarious super-villain name. In terms of power, it's incredibly strong and has armed hands - although it's unclear whether that last detail becomes the movie. One thing is certain, Taserface is a long way from the fun and sweet toby. That's us fans are in a big surprise when they see how scary Sullivan can be. Whether or not the character turns out to be silly but terrifying, Sullivan strikes an imposing figure. It will be interesting to see the gifted actor literally disappear in his role GOTG, Vol. 2 this May. Read our full Disney Infinity: Marvel Super Heroes review. Disney Infinity 2.0: Marvel Super Heroes hasn't come out yet, but developers have already announced an expansion based on Guardians of the Galaxy, the Marvel film that hits theaters August 1. The Guardians of the Galaxy Play Set will take place at Knowhere, a interdimensional hub and scientific observatory built on the severed head of a Celestial outside space and time. Rocket Raccoon, and the other Guardians (along with the help of the crossover characters Iron Man and Nova) will defend Knowhere from the villain Ronan Ronan Accuser and his invading Sakaaran fleet. Of course, you will be able to mix and match Star-Lord, Rocket Raccoon, Drax, Gamora, and Groot with the rest of your heroes in Ice Box mode. The Guardians will be able to take part in one of the new and structured Joy box games called Attack on Asgard, where Loki leads a giant frost assault against the corridors of Asgard, leaving it to your heroes to defend Odin's palace and prevent Loki from claiming the throne. The set will also introduce new power discs to give your original Toy Box creations some Guardians of the Galaxy-themed style. The Guardians Play Set will be available in stores this fall. In addition to the new set of games, Sony has announced that PlayStation fans will be treated to a collector's edition of Marvel Super Heroes that comes with the six of the Avengers core, including The Hulk, which will not be available otherwise until sometime after launch. The Starter Pack standard will only include Iron Man, Thor and Black Widow, with Captain America and Hawkeye available at launch to buy separately. To show off his collection of heroes, the collector's edition will include a bright display that features a huge icy beast that extends behind the mounted Avengers. You will be able to purchase the collector's edition separately, or included with a 12GB PS3 for $250. The collector's edition will be available for pre-order online soon, or next week in person at marvel's San Diego Comic-Con booth. Recommendations from publishers today, Zoë Saldana is well known for playing Gamora in the Marvel Cinematic Universe. The character has appeared in both installments of Guardians of the Galaxy, multiple Avengers mash-ups, and is set to star in the third Guardians film when it finally premieres. Saldana's character is an integral part of Marvel's cinematic landscape: It was the main consequence of the endgame narrative. Remember: Thanos was forced to sacrifice the only thing he thought he loved - Gamora - to fulfill his tyrannical and maniacal vision, built from a twisted moral code. Zoë Saldana Attends 'Guardians of the Galaxy' Photocall | Stuart C. Wilson/Getty Images Before Marvel brought Saldana to her fragility, the actress starred in Blood Ties, Out of the Furnace, Star Trek, The Words, and more. However, since taking on Gamora, he has been intertwined with the Marvel world. So what's next for the actress? How do you plan to break some of the character ties you've cemented? What's on the horizon for Saldana? Although she still doesn't leave the Marvel world, Saldana has a few plans outside the MCU, and let's not forget that she belongs to another big blockbuster hit: Avatar. RELATED: Marvel lost millions in the most pointless casting of an A-list actor at the MCU Zoë Saldana multiple 'Avatar' appearances on the horizon, and may appear in another 'Star Trek' film Although it has been quite a while since James Cameron's Avatar took the world by storm, in 2009 2009 and pandara's exquisite landscape remains an accessory in the minds of fans. And, the saga will continue in 2021. According to IMDb, Avatar 2 is scheduled for 2021, Avatar 3 will premiere in 2023, Avatar 4 will hit the silver screen in 2025, and Avatar 5 will conclude the saga in 2027. This is almost a decade of Avatar movies coming our way. Although they were all filming in tandem, the COVID-19 pandemic can lead to delayed releases. RELATED: 'Guardians of the Galaxy' song John Lennon praised in Avatar, Saldana plays a lead character, Neytiri - a member of Na'vi's evolution. It takes over the heart of a former marine, Jake Sully, who uses an Avatar (human hybrid/Na'vi) to enter Pandora. As the bond between the two grows, Sully is forced to fight alongside Neytiri in a battle for the survival of her world. It's love, it's action, it's war, it's a battle for freedom, it's a sci-fi wonder. What else could you ask for? Avatar will keep Saldana busy with another major franchise. He is also a lead character in the Star Trek reboot starring Chris Pine. It is rumored that he will return for an untitled sequel as Lieutenant Uhura. However, Saldana is not just a franchise actress. Saldana has a great independent project along the way as well. Zoë Saldana will star in 'Fencer' Fencer is an upcoming film about an athlete who has to face personal demons and childhood rivals while in a position on the U.S. Olympic fencing team. As for the determined athlete -with conviction that comes out of each pore- Saldana will assume the main character. The film is currently in pre-production with an unknown release date. Jasmine McGlade will write and direct the film. McGlade also worked as a producer on La La Land. He previously directed Maria My Love and the short film Day and Night. Saldana is in solid hands with this one, and this can become an Oscar-worthy turn for the actress. HP ZED, a 'pop up shop' for creatives in London's Soho, closes today at the end of its two-week run. But there are still a small number of entries left for the rest of the sessions, so be sure to sign up now and make sure of a seat. Here's what's coming down on the last day at ZED... Education for the Future of Digital Creativity, 3-4pmMark Spevick With more than 16 years of VFX experience, Mark Spevick knows a thing or two about Cinematic CG. More recently he led the CG team that worked on the parachute scene in Angels and Demons on behalf of Double Negative. In this session, Spevick analyzes how education in the field has matured, from the days of being a runner and working his way up to the introduction of VFX training at universities and tailor-made training in academies such as Escape Studios. He will explain that the future for his VFX career continues, brilliant, even when your tool of choice falls by the way. It is a mandatory attendance session for all those interested in improving their skills and developing their professional career. Sign up here. Adam Dewhurst will talk about his work on the Galaxy to HP ZED London Finally, but certainly not least, this special session promises to be the highlight of a very special fortnight at HP ZED London. In this very special session, Adam Dewhurst of The Mill, Lead Modeller on Guardians of the Galaxy, will talk about the process behind the development of the film's creatures, but with a twist! The focus will be on the creations that didn't make the final cut with, but how he refuses to play a vital role in character development. Book your free tickets today! And finally... To close the ZED, we will reveal the final cut of the Bring Your Own Animation challenge organized by Siggraph London Chapter. Teams of animators will have had two days to create a short animation on a theme set in HP Z Workstations. The revelation will be followed by food, drink and music.
